

New driver in the house? Discover how you can save money on insurance premiums!

It's no secret that new drivers pay higher car insurance premiums, as they have less experience behind the wheel and the need to build up a safe driving record. This inexperience contributes to the overrepresentation of teenage drivers in car accidents — although young Canadians represent 13% of the licensed driving population, they account for 20% of motor vehicle deaths and injuries.¹ However, there are ways to save on car insurance for a new driver.
