

Investing 101: a 5-point 'beginner's guide' to getting started

Imagine OTPP/OMERS never invested your pension contributions. By the time you retired, all that money would have declined in value over the years thanks to inflation. Investing, on the other hand, offers the power to stay ahead of inflation.

If you're finally ready to take the leap into the world of investing and start growing your money, here is your beginner's guide to getting started: <https://bit.ly/3nqQM48>. Brought to you by Educators Financial Group.
